ProgenyHealth, Inc. Named as Best Early Stage Company for the Philadelphia Business Journal's Life Sciences Award

Conshohocken, PA – December 20, 2010 – ProgenyHealth, Inc. was chosen from a select group of finalists as the winner in the category of Best Early Stage Company. The Philadelphia Business Journal honored the finalists and award winners during their inaugural ceremony, September 29th, 2010 at the Crystal Tea Room in Philadelphia.

ProgenyHealth, Inc. was selected by a distinguished panel of judges from leading universities in the state which included the University of Pennsylvania, University of Pittsburgh and Lehigh University. In selecting the honorees, judges measured their individual achievements, their success in achieving milestones, the impact of their work on the target audience and/or the community and their ability to overcome obstacles along the way. The winners were recognized for their efforts in improving human health and growing an important local industry.

Dr. Ellen Stang President and CEO of ProgenyHealth commented, "We are thrilled to be named a Best Early Stage Company for the Philadelphia Business Journal's Life Sciences Award. Receiving this award demonstrates ProgenyHealth's commitment to improving the health outcomes of the population we serve. It is a great privilege to be honored among the most respected healthcare companies within the Greater Philadelphia Area."

ProgenyHealth continues to expand and grow its services nationwide. As a company, we focus on opportunities and initiatives to improve the services we provides to existing clients and their families as well as providers. Our company is also focused on maintaining outstanding customer satisfaction scores from clients, members and providers.

About ProgenyHealth

Headquartered in Conshohocken, Pennsylvania, ProgenyHealth is a leading provider of neonatal care coordination services. Focusing on the unique health care needs of infants in intensive care nurseries, ProgenyHealth neonatologists, pediatricians and NICU nurses partner with the infant's neonatologists and primary care physicians to provide care management services from birth throughout the first year of life. Care managers are available to support and educate families 24/7. By working closely with the ProgenyHealth clinical team, the families become active participants in the health care decision making process.
